Alive at Ninety-Five Recollections of a Nonagenarian

By Sydney Kleeman

iUniverse, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 190 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. Dr. William Plumley writes about Sydney M. Kleeman's first book of poems, these reflections are not exactly poems and not exactly meditations. The same can be said of this second collection of poems, in which Sydney Kleeman revisits the themes of the aging process, social justice, man's inhumanity to man, and his hope for a more just world. At times he writes profound commentary on man's egregious treatment of his fellow man, urging his readers to raise their voices to make a difference. Other poems, such as A Rare Moment, show the author's lighter, more personal side as he meets his great-granddaughter for the first time. Finally, these poems are the work of a wise nonagenarian, imparting the wisdom gained through a life full of work, travel, and community service, as he faces the inevitability of aging, but never stops striving to make his voice heard.
