Other People's Worlds

By Trevor, William.

Penguin. 1 Paperback(s), 2015. soft. Book Condition: New. Julia has expectations of happiness, as she is about to be married to Francis, in this 1980 novel by William Trevor. But Francis Tytean actor, in every sense of the wordhas left an unhappy trail of disappointed and lonely women across the south of England. They are poorer as well, since Francis helped himself to trifling sums from their purses in payment for the light he believed he brought to their lives. As the wedding of Francis and Julia draws close however, Francis finally begins to feel pursued by his past, by the women he has wronged. As John Updike wrote in The New Yorker, the novel is "constantly surprising, grimly hilarious, total in its empathy and pungent with the scent of evil and corruption." A three-time winner of the Whitbread Award and four-time winner of the O. Henry Prize, as well as a four-time finalist for the Man Booker Prize and the winner of several lifetime achievement awards, William Trevor is celebrated as a novelist, playwright, and master of the short story, "one of the elder statesman of the Irish literary world" (Guardian, London). 227.
