Excerpt from Proceedings of the Independence Jubilee: Celebrated at Spencertown, July 4, 1846 The citizens of Spencertown, desirous of appropriately observing the anniversary of our national independence, adopted timely measures for the accomplishment of that end. In addition to the usual exercises of such an occasion, the ladies proposed to give a public dinner in the open air, and it was determined that exertions be also made to give the festival a local as well a national character. Accordingly, cards of invitation were addressed to the natives of Spencertown who resided abroad, to return again to their early scenes, and while celebrating national glories, to exchange congratulations at the home of their childhood. The Committee of Arrangements obtained the services of Joseph W. Gott, Esq., of Goshen, Orange county, a native of this town, as orator for the occasion; and relied on many others, also, to return and participate in the exercises at the table. Every preparation which taste could suggest or industry accomplish, was freely made by the ladies; and nothing but the contingency of unfavorable...
