

What Stays in Vegas: The World of Personal Data--Lifeblood of Big Business--and the End of Privacy as We Know it (First Trade Paper Edition)

By Adam Tanner

The Perseus Books Group. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, What Stays in Vegas: The World of Personal Data--Lifeblood of Big Business--and the End of Privacy as We Know it (First Trade Paper Edition), Adam Tanner, The greatest threat to privacy today is not the NSA, but good-old American companies. Internet giants, leading retailers, and other firms are voraciously gathering data with little oversight from anyone. In Las Vegas, no company knows the value of data better than Caesars Entertainment. Many thousands of enthusiastic clients pour through the ever-open doors of their casinos. The secret to the company's success lies in their one unrivaled asset: they know their clients intimately by tracking the activities of the overwhelming majority of gamblers. They know exactly what games they like to play, what foods they enjoy for breakfast, when they prefer to visit, who their favorite hostess might be, and exactly how to keep them coming back for more. Caesars' dogged data-gathering methods have been so successful that they have grown to become the world's largest casino operator, and have inspired companies of all kinds to ramp up their own data mining in the hopes of boosting their targeted marketing efforts. Some do...
