Excerpt: . of Honour and Prosperity, the Officers of the Divan sitting as calm Spectators of this Violence, lest they should be overpowered by the Cabal-, for the least Mark of Disapprobation would instantly be chastised by their Sabres. On the contrary, traryj they tamely doi Homage7 to the new Dey and afret thd m, the whole Body of the Soldiery, from the same prudent Motives. But sometimes even this Precaution is disappointed, k being no uncommon Thing for a Dey, who has acquired his Power by such illegal Proceedings, to strangle some-Officers, to make room for his Creatures, sparing only such as countenanced him, or who had no particular Attachment-to the late Dey. Halt Dey, who obtained the Deylik by the Murder of Ibrahim Dey, firmed the Madman, m June 1710, strangled, and otherwise destroyed 4 no less than seventeen hundred Persons. His Security at...
