D01247. book Page 13 Tuesday, January 16, 2001 1: 34 PM Major Performance and Accountability Challenges as a practical matter, only as long as that of the President who appointed him or her. Historically, their terms have been even shorter. In the 24 years since HCFA's inception, there have been 19 administrators or acting administrators, whose tenure has been, on average, little more than 1 year. About 10 percent of the time, HCFA has had an acting administrator. These short tenures have not been conducive to carrying out whatever strategic plans or innovations an individual may have developed for administering Medicare efficiently and effectively. In addition to leadership constraints, the agency's capacity to manage Medicare is limited relative to its multiple, complex responsibilities. In January 1998 and February 1999, we reported that HCFA was overwhelmed in its efforts to handle the number and complexity of requirements in the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 ( BBA ). For example, BBA expanded the health plan options in which Medicare beneficiaries could enroll. However, HCFA's staff had no previous experience overseeing these diverse options, such as preferred provider organizations, private fee-for-service plans, and medical savings accounts. According to the HHS Inspector General, many staff lacked experience in dealing with health maintenance organizations - the existing managed care option. Few regional office staff assigned to managed care oversight had training or experience in data analysis, which is key to monitoring internal trends in plan performance over time and assessing plan performance against local and national 1 norms. 1 Medicare's Oversight of Managed Care: Implications for...
