It is not prepared, nor is it yet required by the resolution under which it was appointed, to publish its full report, with the final shape in which the Hymnal may be recommended to the Convention. But the work has so far progressed that it has been decided to print the results at present reached, in order that the Church may have abundant time for a careful examination of them. In its task of selection and arrangement, the Committee had it in view: To make a distinction between hymns for common and hymns for special use, placing the latter in an Appendix, yet with continuous numbering, so that they may be available at any and all times; To make larger provision than heretofore for Holy Days and for special events; To secure a number of hymns appropriate to the later portions of the longer festival seasons; To place as many as possible of the hymns for the various seasons under the heading of General, where they can be readily found by means of the first-line references, and yet where they will more naturally come into use throughout the year; To group together, as far as possible, the hymns placed under that heading, according to their thought, and to arrange them generally after the plan of the book itself; To use plural pronouns wherever it was possible;...
