BACK TIME ON LOVE CITY: THE CARNIVAL NEVER STOPPED (PAPERBACK)

Bronson Spectral Publications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Torn between the relative safety of doing what was expected, living and working close to home in middle America farmland, or blindly plunging into sharky waters (literally), our young hero readily chose the sharks. It was bold choices like this early on that helped to shape his great adventure that wafted him far beyond the cornfields of Illinois and onto an island in the Caribbean - a pirate's paradise. In his first factually-based fictional work, author David Culberson paints a wonderful coming of age story, in the bright and blinding pastels of youthful enthusiasm. Every central character needs a mentor and our young hero, a complete rookie to sea and island life, was innocently drawn to a modern-day pirate by the name of Captain Jay. With high drive and low scruples, the pirate takes the rookie under his dark wing. Often times, Jay's antics nearly kill him but somehow, our main character grew stronger and more savvy, eventually transforming his dark lessons into a very bright future. Back Time on Love City is a funny five-star must-read. Between the inter-mix of laughs and heart-stopping antics, you find a central character that is inspiring just by his ability to remain alive. Publisher's Review: This is a factually-based novel about friendships forged from less than perfect circumstances within a perfect place, based on consequential timing, and ending in the reality of the passing of time and long memories. A somewhat naive twenty-two year old kid from the Midwest found his way to the Caribbean during a time when there were still modern day pirates; pre-DEA, pre-AIDS, and way pre-9/11. He eventually landed on a small...
