Their work is very exacting, and they must work long hours. The work can only be thoroughly learned in a feather curling establishment, and places are not easy to obtain. Glove Jlal: ing: --The center of the love making industry in this country is situated around Gloversville, New York. Women in that part of the country understood something of the business a few years ago and many of them were sufficiently expert to earn a good pay. The same is probably still true. There is need in love stores of women who can repair gloves. Some glove stores import expert help for them, but a good many women can readily learn all that is necessary. A woman who can repair gloves, can often command quite liberal pay. There are a number of flourishing glove stores in the country, owned and managed by women. Experience is necessary in learning the business, both due to its inner details, and its management. After that it is a question of capital and management. It is a business in which a woman owner and manager, other things being equal, has little advantage over a man manager. It is true that a woman in a glove store is a recognized business calling, and it is really efficient here, whose circumstances will allow her to take on engagement, is long unemployed, it is usually because she...
