Fire Administration, 1995 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)127304536 Subject: Emergency medical services -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . Assess the progress of new volunteers and make recommendations as to changes needed in performance or training. The responsibility for an EMS organizations recruitment efforts Use of a Dedicated should be assigned to a dedicated recruiter or volunteer coordinator, Recruiter who does not need to be an operational member of the organization, in order to ensure a continuous, professional approach to the identification and enlistment of a competent volunteer workforce for the organization. The recruiter selected must be enthusiastic, dedicated, motivated, and sold on the product, which is the importance of the EMS organization and its work to the community. A casual attitude towards recruitment will not achieve the results needed. It is more important for the EMS organization to take the time to select the right person to sustain the recruitment program with the right attitude than simply to assign the job of coordinating the recruitment effort to anyone in the organization. The dedicated recruiter is responsible for developing a program to recruit individuals into the organization. The recruiter is not solely responsible for the actual recruiting. Recruiting is the job of every member of the EMS organization. All members must participate in implementing the recruitment program and in identifying and attracting capable individuals who express an interest in the organization. One of the first things that a recruiter should do is to train other members of the organization how to recognize an opportunity to recruit and to follow through with recruitment opportunities. The recruiter should develop print materials that explain the organization and its mission...
