Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Carolyn is engaged to her boss, a nice looking insurance agent. She isn't sure she can be happy with him. The man is boring, which is a discovery she made when they not only work together almost every day, but have lunch most days, and he goes to her apartment in the evenings to watch old movies while sitting beside her on the couch. Derek wants to take her on a trip to a ski lodge in Colorado for a Christmas week get-away, to get to know each other. No, he doesn't ski, but he'd love watching her go down the slopes. This isn't appealing to Carolyn. If you're that set against going to Colorado with me, why not take a week off by yourself. Go see your parents, and take time to think about us. The suggestion came as a surprise. But it is one of the better suggestions she's heard from him. The weather doesn't look good for the week she is planning her trip. Carolyn hopes she can get to her parents home before the ice storm hits. Because a car is on her side of the road, she has an accident, and is stuck in Carbon. The older man who helps her, takes her home like a stray kitten, where she meets the man's son. There is an attraction between the two young adults. Mr. Kingston isn't happy with walking into the room where they are embraced. I want to talk to you, Daniel. And as for you, young lady. Just because you take that ring off your finger. Please, Mr. Kingston. Caroline didn't...
