Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Leaves -a collection of poems - is the third book by the author. His other titles include Nebulae Cocktails - love songs of epiphanies and The Desert Stones - a poem. The title poem is about aging as transformation: I m shedding my old life leaf by leaf, the author says, Limbs, down turned with Winter, growing light again. One by one the pages are not turned, but torn and tossed aside. As the branches are soon bare, the author extends the metaphor: My limbs are reaching star to star, to find in darkness lush with loss the hope of seeds beneath the snow. While mostly written in free verse, there is some use of rhyme and internal rhyme: Again, I m letting go. It is a familiar sorrow. The theme of transformation is elaborated on in the poem, The Return of Owls - Beneath swiftly racing puffs of sky, stark truth forms as feathers, shifting from earth s still air. The poem Origami explores the author s relationship with his father and his father s generation, often called the Greatest Generation. He writes, I grew up in a world of one legged men, so full of subtext and back-story, you d think, from their silence, they were anything but the glorious conquerors of boundless evil. There are short poems like Skin - for Kimberly where the author tells is daughter, You dance in your new skin Cosmic causes to begin There you are, starting the whole damn thing all over again. The line lengths are short and mostly unmetered. This is a very accessible collection of poems where unexpected imagery and powerful metaphor are the author...
