( On his return home, he continued with the same diligence, which had previously distinguished his conduct, to benefit his fellowcreatures. The great religious institutions of the nineteenth century were styled by him the seeds of the millennium; and every act of his own was viewed as an effort to force the shoots;--a tree this, which will throw its mighty shadow over every nation under heaven. The year (1828) was begun in the spirit in which its predecessor had closed--a spirit purely devotional. Having been at home a short time, he again left it, and went into the Pocklington circuit, tarrying a night on the road, at the...
